

Language

Across

3. words that refer to tangible objects
 5. discourse that takes many more words than are necessary to express an idea
 7. words that refer to ideas or concepts
 12. repetition of the initial consonant sound of close or adjoining words
 13. the similar arrangement of a pair or series of related words, phrases, or sentences

Word Bank

repetition
 simile
 abstract words
 concrete words

denotative meaning
 rhythm
 connotative meaning antithesis

metaphor
 clutter
 cliché
 inclusive language

4. The literal or dictionary meaning of a word or phrase
 6. the juxtaposition of contrasting ideas, usually in parallel structure
 8. the use of vivid language to create mental images of objects, actions, or ideas
 9. reiteration of the same word or set of words at the beginning or end of successive clauses or sentences
 10. comparing two things without using "like" or "as"
 11. comparing two things using "like" or "as"