

Language

Across

- 5. An area of the brain devoted to the production of speech
- 7. A system for combining symbols so that an infinite number of meaningful statements can be made to communicate
- 8. System of rules for combining words and phrases to form grammatically correct sentences
- 9. believed that language helps develop concepts
- 10. The first language sounds infants begin to make

Down

- 1. Inborn schema that allows humans to learn and use language
- 2. Aspects of language involving the practical ways of communicating with others, or the social "niceties" of language
- 3. The smallest units of meaning within a language
- 4. Rules for determining the meaning of words and sentences
- 6. believed that concepts must be developed first if language is to follow