

Lawrence of Arabia

Across

2. Name of the Arab King
 4. The general that would give Lawrence special tasks later in the war to aid the British offensives
 10. The formal name of the railway the Ottomans relied heavily on, and the railway that the Arabs would constantly harass
 11. The city that Lawrence landed in in his first time in the Middle East in 1909
 12. The city where the British set up for operations in the Middle East (also the current capitol of Egypt)
 13. The city Lawrence was told to take out it's railway but failed, also the city he tried to infiltrate but was captured for a short time

14. The English city where he would spend most of his child years and would go to school there
 17. The place Lawrence traveled to in order to obtain camels and men
 18. The place where Lawrence landed in Arabia in 1917 to supervise the Arab Revolt
 19. The Ottoman port town where Lawrence blew up many ships, aiding in the British attack

Down

1. The most famous work written by Lawrence about his account in Arabia
 3. The first major target the Arabs set their eyes on, a port that was a thorn in the British side

5. The name of the fierce warriors of the Arab people, many were in Lawrence's "army"
 6. The more informal name of the Hejaz Railway
 7. Prince of Arab King and close ally and friend of Lawrence
 8. A feared warrior of the Arab people and also a close friend of Lawrence
 9. The alternative name for Lawrence of Arabia that his Arab friends would call him
 15. The last major city that was taken with the help of Lawrence before he Ottomans fell
 16. The desert where Lawrence first created maps for in the Middle East (the Ottomans marched across this desert to attack the Suez Canal)

Word Bank

Wadi Sirhan
 Oxford
 Jericho
 Hejaz Railway
 Sinai

Seven Pillars of Wisdom
 Beduin
 Cairo
 Allenby
 Pilgrim Railroad

Damascus
 Akaba
 Beirut
 Prince Feisal
 Deraa

Auda abu Tayi
 Sharif Hussein
 El Auren
 Jidda