

Leadership crossword

Across

- 3. the framework outlining the conditions needed for this to occur
- 6. acronym for secure, computerized patient records where information can be obtained and documented
- 7. this type of communication can be impacted when technology is not used
- 8. a common technology service used in the health care setting
- 10. Traditionally connected to formal titles but is being adopted into all roles to progress positive change

Down

- 1. The first step in the change process
- 2. a subspecialty that combines nursing science, information science, and computer science
- 4. technology used in the clinical setting to measure blood glucose levels
- 5. telecommunications & information technologies for the provision of healthcare to individuals at a distance
- 9. the step in the change process where components are implemented