

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

Learning About Pre-Schoolers

Across

2. Do not ____ a preschooler when dealing with their, sometimes, out of control behavior; instead, stay calm and talk about the issue with them.

4. This is a word that describes when the child is scared/afraid of something.

7. An example of ____ is coloring with crayons or cutting with scissors because the kids are skillfully using their hands and/or fingers.

12. The preschooler might be ____ if s/he can draw (or write) with both of their hands.

13. A preschooler might show ____ to others by trying to comfort others if they are sad by giving them a toy or hug.

14. Some key tips for preschoolers ____ is to interact with them, be patient with them, let them explore and be curious, etc.

15. The preschooler might have ____ of s/he learn a lot of unfamiliar stuff at one time.

16. Teachers should give preschoolers ____ instruction so they know exactly what to do.

19. One key to your preschooler's growing ____ is her growing capacity for empathy.

20. You can encourage a preschoolers ____ if you allow them to be independent and try things on their own. In this way, they will start to believe in their own abilities

Down

1. When a child visits the dentist, the dentist would normally put ____ on their teeth to prevent tooth decay.

3. A preschooler is in need of a loving and supporting ____ to grow up happily.

5. Preschoolers might show ____ by showing willingness to accomplish more. For example, they might have the motivation to clean or help out.

6. It might be a good idea to ____ your child's screen time because it allows them opportunity to be more social with other people/kids and more physically active, instead of only being on the electronic.

8. Preschoolers might show ____ by kicking or punching people; this behavior is intending harm to others.

9. ____ is good for preschoolers to learn because it teaches them (at a young age) failure without hurting their self esteem.

10. It is good for preschoolers social development if they talk and interact with their ____ since they are all the same age and have commonality.

11. Teachers should give activities that are developmentally ____ for the preschoolers.

17. Some examples of preschoolers ____ development are that their spine become straighter, their torso starts to lengthen, etc.

18. It is good to ____ with your child about their feelings/emotions.

Word Bank

Ridicule

Regulate

Self Confidence

Dexterity

Successes

Initiative

Specific

Ambidextrous

Physical

Peers

Family

Aggressive Behavior

Competition

Appropriate

Fear

Moral Development

Empathy

Talk

Fluoride

Tension