Learning

Across

4. What animal did Pavlov use in his study?

6. What was the unconditioned response in Pavlov's study?

8. What is the third important factor in social learning (observational learning)?

9. What is the term used for when desired behaviour is rewarded?

10. What type of conditioning did Watson and Rayner focus on in their study?

12. What is the first important factor in social learning (observational learning)?

13. What is the second important factor in social learning (observational learning)?

14. What is the term for something in our environment that affects us?

15. What conditioning was Pavlov focused on?

16. What is the term used for when desired behaviour is rewarded by adding something pleasant?

Down

1. What was the unconditioned response in Watson and Rayner's study?

2. What was the unconditioned stimulus in Watson and Rayner's study?

3. What does the NS become after conditioning?

5. What is the term for our reaction to a stimulus?

7. What is the last important factor in social learning (observational learning)?

11. What was the name of the baby used in Watson and Rayner's study?