

Learning from four to six

Across

1. A song or chant with accompanying hand motions.
 6. Children who do not speak _____ at home often face challenges when they begin school.
 9. Reading to young children regularly helps them _____ books with enjoyment at an early age.
 10. Four to six year olds are often _____ about learning
 11. Many parents place their children in _____ so that they can become used to a school setting.

13. Children ages 4,5,and,6 typically show _____ increase in their vocabulary
 14. being able to speak two languages
 15. Smallest individual sound in a word, such as ou in house

Down

2. The repetition of certain sounds.
 3. Distinct speech, improves dramatically in this period as well.
 4. Reading can _____ remain part of a daily routine even as children start school and begin learning to read on their own.

5. _____ an interest in reading is important because books provide an opportunity to learn about and understand the world.
 7. When you talk about their art-work you _____, or encourage, a sense of accomplishment.
 8. Asking a child's _____ is another effective technique for promoting learning.
 12. By age _____, children can correctly say 90% of the words they know.