

Lee et al

Across

1. He included 108 [blank] children aged 7,9, + 11 years

4. He wanted to [blank] collectivist + individualistic cultures' views on lie + truth telling

8. He included 120 [blank] children aged 7,9, + 11 years

11. The influence of socio-cultural factors becomes stronger as we...

13. Moral reasoning can be influenced by our [blank] and the [blank] we live in

14. Both groups of children rated anti-social truths very...

16. _____

15. Some aspects of moral reasoning such as judging anti-social lying as bad may be...

16. There was 2 pro-social stories + 2 [blank] stories

Down

2. Canadian children were consistently positive about pro-social truths but Chinese children became less...

3. A study that includes more than one culture

5. A study looking at groups of people who differ on one key characteristic at one point in time

6. Anti-social lies were rated [blank] by both groups + this increased with age

7. The aim was to look at lie + truth telling where the [blank] of the main character was made clear

9. What Lee wanted to move away from

10. Chinese children became more positive about pro-social...

12. A study where the IV isn't manipulated