

Legal Terms

Across

- 3. the acknowledgement of a fact
- 7. a written statement made under oath and notarized
- 10. lawyer or attorney
- 11. an argument written to persuade the judge of innocence or guilt
- 13. request to judge or court
- 16. a parent has the right to visit their child under these orders
- 17. when a defendant gets the order to come into court
- 24. hears cases like a judge, but must be reviewed
- 25. the second summon one receives if the first was never served
- 27. living apart but not divorced
- 28. a lawsuit
- 29. also known as the clerk, this member of the staff would handle court room procedures
- 30. the legal papers to start a case when sent to the courts
- 32. a public order made in order to protect citizens

- 33. a person who testifies for or against the defendant in a case
  - 36. if one receives an unfair trial, they can apply for a review of the decision, also known as an...
  - 37. a trial judge, one who has the same duties as a Circuit Judge
  - 38. speaking out of turn is an example of this (failure to follow a court order)
  - 39. when a spouse gets a non-criminal order against their own abusive spouse
  - 40. the basis of a legal action taken against someone
- Down
- 1. courts decision
  - 2. when a person goes before the court to make a testimony without notification of the other party
  - 4. Giving the clerk your complaint and court papers
  - 5. a defendants claim against a plaintiff
  - 6. a proceeding into a court of law for a lawsuit
  - 8. movable property, not real land or property
  - 9. the authority of a court to hear a case on any terms

- 12. when you must give payments each month to another party to satisfy a judgment
- 14. when under oath, you make this official statement to the court
- 15. the two sides of the case, aka defendant and plaintiff
- 18. another word for divorce
- 19. a notice of someone to appear in court
- 20. the person who submits the papers to start a case
- 21. the official court or legal papers you would put in to start a case or trial
- 22. a claim of property to satisfy the court
- 23. the list of cases before a judge that are scheduled for the day
- 26. a husband makes this payment to his spouse for support
- 31. testimonies, documents, and other objects fall under this category if they are presented to the court to help ensure a decision
- 34. the husband or wife
- 35. failure to answer to a complaint