

Name: _____

Date: _____

Lemon Brown Crossword

Across

2. The old man looked out, then ----- frantically for Greg to follow him.
6. "Let's look out the window first, see what them ----- be doing," Lemon Brown said.
7. "We heard you talking about your treasure." The voice was -----.
9. You guess so?" Lemon Brown's voice rose an ----- as he started to put his treasure back into the plastic.
10. "A rush of warm air came in as the downstairs door opened, then there was only an ----- silence."

Down

1. The voice was high and -----, like dry twigs being broken
3. As Greg howled, the light moved away from Lemon Brown, but not before Greg saw him ----- his body down the stairs at the men who had come to take his treasure.
4. He was an ----- sight, a bundle of rags standing at the top of the stairs, his shadow on the wall looming over him.
5. Lemon Brown squeezed Greg's hand in his own hard, ----- fist.
8. "You OK for a youngster," the old man said as he tied the strings around his leg, "better than those ----- what come here looking for my treasure."

Word Bank

ominous      beckoned      octave      gnarled      Scoundrel hurl          slurred          brittle      scalawags      eerie