

Lemonade Vocabulary

Across

- 2. have a craving, appetite, or great desire for; plead or ask for earnestly
- 4. given to haughty disregard of others; a gallant or courtly gentleman
- 6. a conduit that resembles a bridge but carries water over a valley
- 8. zealous in devotion or affection
- 9. a personal facade that one presents to the world; an actor's portrayal of someone in a play
- 11. a posture assumed by models for photographic or artistic purposes; introduce

Down

- 1. saving someone or something from harm or from an unpleasant situation
- 3. the act of purchasing back something previously sold; the act of delivering from sin or saving from evil
- 5. a shortage of rainfall; a prolonged shortage
- 7. walk (through relatively shallow water)
- 10. a medicine or therapy that cures disease or relieve pain; set straight or right