

Lesson 4: Other Civilizations of the Americas

Across

3. canoes with watertight coverings (page 126)

6. The Aztecs ruled a large territory in central _____. (page 130)

8. The _____ Builders, as we call them today, were known for their huge earthen structures. (page 127)

9. Agriculture was difficult in the harsh desert of _____ Canyon. (page 128)

11. a group of countries under the control of one ruler (page 130)

12. a highly developed human society (page 130)

Down

1. The Artic American Indian culture was located in _____ and Alaska. (page 129)

2. The Southwest American Indian culture hunted, gathered, _____, made baskets and pottery, and traded. (page 129)

4. The culture areas found in modern day Texas according to the map on page 126 are the plains, Southeast, and _____. (page 126)

5. About 2,000 years ago, groups of hunter-gatherers in the _____ began to farm corn. (page 128)

7. a product brought from a different place to trade or sell (page 128)

10. The _____, who continue to live in Alaska and Canada, may have been the last of the ancient people to arrive in North America nearly 4,000 years ago. (page 126)

Word Bank

empire

Southwest

Inuit

kayaks

Mexico

Mound

farmed import civilization

Canada

Chaco

Southwest