

Let's Play Kitchen

Across

4. A theorist whose approach was discussed during the song introduction
5. The children show a sense of _____

11. The children's behaviour can be explained by _____ theories
13. A word often used in the song for children engagement
14. The type of motor skills where small movements are performed
16. The Piaget stage that the children are in
18. The theory that Albert Bandura created
20. The theorist that highlights the importance of imitation
23. The word for pretend play they are engaging in

24. An ability the one child excelled in, and the other one needs to work on
25. The type of motor skills where large movements are performed

Down

1. One of the tools the children will use for their craft activity
2. A type of play they are engaging in
3. There was an assignment called the activity _____
6. The location of where the play imitation occurred
7. _____ is a method used to help a child with a task until they no longer need assistance
8. The author of the textbook
9. The children are engaging in _____
10. One type of grasp that was being used by the children

12. In the activity, the children are drawing on a _____
15. _____'s zone of proximal development
17. How many children are in the video
19. The outfit choice of the one little girl
21. What stage of Erikson's development were the children in?
22. Professor _____