

Letter from Birmingham Jail

Across

- 3. a mournful poem; a lament for the dead
- 4. unfriendly behavior that causes anger or resentment
- 5. act of ceasing to participate in an activity
- 6. the feeling you have when you are satisfied with yourself
- 10. ancient Athenian philosopher; teacher of Plato and Xenophon

- 12. a sacred song used to praise a deity
- 13. reveal its presence or make an appearance
- 14. the conventions embodying the fundamental values of a group
- 15. of or associated with a church

Down

- 1. Having or showing knowledge or understanding or realization

- 2. suspense of an ongoing activity
- 7. a social system with separate facilities for minority groups
- 8. the spirit of the time
- 9. make a counterattack and return like for like
- 11. Israeli religious philosopher