

Library Terms

Across

- 3. This is a story of a famous person's life.
- 8. This page at the beginning of a book lists the title, author, and illustrator of a book.
- 10. The outside of a book.
- 12. This is the type of information book, such as an encyclopedia, dictionary, etc.
- 13. The backbone of a book.

Down

- 1. This is a type of book that contains real, true information.
- 2. The list of chapters in a book and the page numbers on which each chapter starts.
- 4. The person who drew the illustrations in a book.
- 5. This is the type of book a younger child should choose.

- 6. This refers to the words in a book.
- 7. This is on the spine of a book and tells you where to find the book on the library shelf.
- 9. The person who wrote the book.
- 11. This is a story that is make-believe or made up; it didn't really happen in real life.