

Life As We New It

Across

- 2. to compose; form
3. to support, hold or bear up from below
4. a dark, dull or dirty color
9. an uncontrollable outburst of emotion or fear
11. a type of classical dance
14. the group of ordained persons in a religion

16. a fixed allowance of something

- 17. a chisel having a partly cylindrical blade
18. disposed to take a favourable view of events
19. to divide; distribute

Down

- 1. allow oneself to follow one's will
5. a doctor who specializes in childbirth
6. to search thoroughly or vigorously

7. means is sustaining life; nourishment

- 8. desire to do good to others
10. the act of someone who feels grief
12. an establishment for making something a pure state
13. an infectious disease
15. extremely thin and bony