

Name: _____

Life Science 7 Chapter 13

Across

- 2. Snakes are....
- 8. The muscle helps mammals and humans breathe is the....
- 10. The walls of a vertebrate heart chamber are made of?
- 12. Which animal has two sets of teeth, the maxillary and vomerine?
- 14. Animals that cannot control their body temperatures internally are?
- 16. What organ do young amphibians have that the adults usually do not have?
- 17. Carnivore is to meat as herbivore is to....
- 18. Which animal has heat-sensing pits?

19. Brain and spinal cord

20. Turtles that spend their entire lives on land are called....

Down

- 1. Absorbs excess water and eliminates wastes....
- 3. The structures that manufacture urine as they filter blood....
- 4. the organ many fish use to help them float at a constant depth is the....
- 5. "double life"
- 6. Which animal has a two-chambered heart?
- 7. Digests and absorbs food....

9. The state of inactivity that amphibians may enter during hot, dry weather is called...

11. A supporting structure that is similar to but more flexible than bone is....

13. Mammals and birds are....

15. moves by flexing its entire body

Word Bank

diaphragm
swimbladder
ectothermic
Frog
snake

amphibian
Shark
muscle
plant
central nervous system

estivation
large intestine
gills endothermic carnivores

fish cartilage
tortoises
small intestine kidney