

Linguistic Crossword

Across

1. Smog, Chortle
4. One morpheme equals one word. Lacks derivational and inflectional processes.
5. Xerox, Kodak, Colgate, Coke
6. The distinctive sounds of the language
11. Looking at the internal structure of words.
13. Amo = I love, Amas = you love, amat = he/she/it loves
15. T.V, Telly, Prof, Lab

16. Holiday once meant Holy Day.

17. Situation dialects.

18. The systems of meanings such as parts of speech.

19. The rules for sentence formation. Strings of morphemes that conform to syntactic rules of the language.

Down

2. The rules for the interpretation of sounds words, sentence formation.

3. Radar, Laser, Scuba

7. Kir + il + ma + lar + mi = Were they not broken?

8. Siesta, Kindergarten, Parliament, Drama

9. The system and pattern of the speech sounds.

10. How words change, are added or lost in the language.

12. The dictionary definition.

14. The most elemental unit of grammatical form.