

Linguistics-Second Term

Across

- 4. It is the study of how language is represented in the brain
- 8. It is the study of how meaning is conveyed, focusing either on meanings related to the outside world
- 10. It is a phrase or an expression that has a figurative, or sometimes literal, meaning.
- 11. It is a figure of speech in which a term for a part of something refers to the whole of something or vice versa
- 12. It is the study of the structure or form of words in a particular language
- 13. It is the study of the order and arrangement of words into larger units
- 14. a word is adopted from one language and incorporated into another language without translation

- 15. It is a non-standard word, expression or pronunciation in a language, particularly one regarded as an error in morphology.
- 16. It consists in determining the basic components organizing the semantic content, or sense, of a word
- 17. how language is first learnt and used by children
- 18. It is the study of the mental aspects of language and speech

Down

- 1. It is a pronunciation, word form, or grammatical construction produced by mistaken analogy with standard usage out of a desire to be correct.
- 2. looking at bilingualism and how individuals can learn a second language
- 3. It is the study of the functions of language and its use in context.

- 5. how words on paper are turned into meaning in the mind
- 6. An alternative to feature analysis, which is intended to have psychological authority
- 7. the way words are stored in our minds and used
- 9. the study of the speech sounds of a particular language.