

Name: _____

Date: _____

Literary/Academic Terms

Across

- 3. the negative, positive, or neutral feeling associated with a word
- 9. To reach a conclusion based on details and clues in a given passage
- 10. an object that represents some deeper meaning
- 12. the most important sentence of the essay that states the writer's position
- 14. repetition of initial consonant sounds
- 15. the use of sensory language to create a mental picture

16. a direct comparison that uses the words like, as, or than to compare two unlike things

18. words that sound like that which they describe

19. the reason for or intent in writing usually to inform, persuade, describe, or entertain

Down

- 1. language that is not meant to be taken literally
- 2. the writer's attitude on the topic that is conveyed through word choice and details
- 4. a reference to a well-know place, event, or literary work

5. the literal "dictionary" meaning of a word

6. inanimate objects given human-like qualities

7. the time, place, or atmosphere in a literary work

8. statement of exaggeration

11. the author's message about humanity on a specific topic

13. a defect or weakness in a character

17. indirect, implied, or extended comparison between to unlike things