

Literary/Rhetorical Devices

Across

- 3. When the author uses descriptive language to create an image for the reader; uses vocabulary that impacts the five sense: smell, sound, touch, taste, sight.
- 7. The emotional, cultural, or contextual connection to a word.
- 8. Involves a struggle between two opposing forces: people or things.
- 9. When an author develops a character.

Down

- 1. The literal definition of a word.
- 2. When the author hints at what will come later on in the story.
- 4. The main events and storyline of a story.
- 5. A comparison between two things.
- 6. The time and place that a story takes place in.
- 10. The lesson the author wants you to learn from a text.