

Literary Concepts

Across

4. The way which linguistic elements are put together to form phrases or clauses
 5. Vocal expression or choice of words especially with regard to correctness
 9. Stories involving popular fictional characters that are written by fans
 10. The addressing of a usually absent person or personified thing
 11. Showing little change
 12. Marked by continuous and productive activity or change

13. Extravagant exaggeration

14. Something that stands for or suggests something else by reason of relationship
 15. An implied or indirect reference especially in literature
 17. A meaning that is metaphorical rather than literal
 18. Not a reliable person when telling a story

Down

1. Something suggested by a word or thing

2. A word or expression that can be understood in two or more possible ways

3. The continuous, unedited chronological flow of conscious experience through the mind
 6. Comparison of two, unlike things not using the words "like" or "as"
 7. An indication of what is to come or happen
 8. Comparison of two, unlike things using the words "like" or "as"
 16. Adhering to fact or primary meaning of a term or expression