

Name: _____

Date: _____

Literary Devices

Across

2. The repetition of sounds at the beginning of words.

3. Events presented that occurred beforehand.

7. A comparison using "like".

8. The sequence of events of a story.

9. A comparison using words that are not meant literally.

10. "BANG!" is an example of _____.

Down

1. Giving human qualities to nonhuman objects.

4. A clue given to the reader of events that are to come.

5. Words used to create a mental picture.

6. The time and place of the story make up the _____.