

Name: _____

Date: _____

Literary Devices

Across

- 1. Something that represents something else
- 3. The method used by the author to create a character
- 6. The sequence of events in a story
- 12. A reference to a well-known person, place, piece of art or literature
- 13. Time and Place
- 14. A lesson about life or human nature

15. A comparison of unlike things without 'like' or 'as'

- 16. The feeling created in the reader
- 17. A deliberate, extreme exaggeration
- 18. A character who does not undergo change in a story

Down

- 2. The perspective from which a story is told
- 4. A struggle between opposing forces

5. Author's word choice for clear and effective expression

- 7. Comparing two unlike things using like or as
- 8. The emotions or feelings associated with a word
- 9. The repetition of consonant sounds at the beginning of words
- 10. Descriptive language appealing to the five senses
- 11. The writer's attitude toward the subject