

Literary Elements

Across

- 2. A story or account of events, experiences, or the like, whether true or fictitious.
- 7. A play on words, sometimes on different senses of the same word and sometimes on the similar sense or sound of different words.
- 10. A figure of speech in which a statement appears to contradict itself.
- 11. Expresses the writer's attitude toward or feelings about the subject matter and audience.

12. The use of words to mean something different than what they appear to mean.

13. Phrase, line, or group of lines repeated at intervals throughout a poem.

15. An utterance or discourse by a person who is talking to himself or herself.

Down

1. A literary device that repeats the same words or phrases a few times to make an idea clearer.

3. The difference between what is expected to happen and what actually happens.

4. When the audience is more aware of what is happening than a character.

5. A word which imitates the natural sounds of a thing.

6. A figure of speech employed by writers or speakers to intentionally make a situation seem less important than it really is.

8. The use of symbols to express or represent ideas or qualities in literature.

9. Figurative language that appeals to the senses

14. A literary element that evokes certain feelings or vibes in readers through words and descriptions.