

Literary Elements

Across

3. "Sally sells seashells by the seashore..."
 7. Detailed word choice that appeals to one of the five senses
 9. An object that represents something deeper
 10. "The car growled and muttered."
 12. "When I was five years old..."
 14. The introduction of a story
 17. A comparison between two unlike things
 20. "The boat cried out like a lost child."

21. The time and place of a story
 22. A clue or hint that reveals what might happen in the future
 23. "The fire grabbed at the curtains."
 24. An argument between two people
 25. "She was dying of starvation."

Down

1. The outcome of a story
 2. A conflict involving an individual's emotions
 4. A character that changes over time

5. "The boy imagined himself as a baby sparrow."

6. The lesson or main idea in a story
 8. The "bad guy" of a story
 11. Opposite words (bittersweet)
 13. "My backpack weighs a thousand pounds."
 15. The main events of a story
 16. "It's raining cats and dogs outside."
 18. The feeling/mood of a writer's word choice
 19. The main character of a story