

Literary Techniques

Across

- 6. Something that stands for (represents) something unseen.
- 7. A twist or surprise near the end of a story, usually introduces a new conflict (foreshadowed plot twist).
- 8. Form or type of literature.
- 9. Something different from what is usually expected.
- 10. The use of clues suggesting events in the future.

Down

- 1. Description of everything forming an image in the reader's mind, captures event, pays close attention to details using the five senses.
- 2. Conversation by the characters.
- 3. Emotional feeling created by elements of the story.
- 4. Quality or mood of being amusing or comical.
- 5. Story is interrupted when character goes back to earlier time to remember something.