

Name: _____

Date: _____

Literary Terms

Across

1. A deliberate exaggeration.
5. The person telling the story
10. When the word imitates the sound (buzz).
11. A paragraph in a poem
13. The big ideas in a book such as love, revenge, loss.
14. Repetition of the same sound close together.

15. How something is said.

16. Sarcasm

17. When and where a book takes place (can also include mood).

Down

2. When an author gives clues as to what will happen next (usually something bad).
3. A rose is often used to _____ love

4. A firefighter's house burns down

6. Describing an object as if it is human.

7. What happens in the book. The story.

8. When the audience knows more than the character.

9. Comparing 2 things without using like or as.

12. Comparing 2 things using like or as.