

Literary Terms

Across

3. a struggle between a character and some outside force
5. An interruption in the action of a plot to tell what happened at an earlier time
7. Shorter than a novel and longer than a short story
8. The overall emotion created by a work of literature
11. The truth of life revealed in a work of literature
14. A leaning in favor or against a person or issue
15. One who does not change much in the course of a work

18. One of the characters is telling the story

19. One that changes as a result of the story's events

20. The use of clues to suggest events that will happen later in the plot

21. The narrator knows everything about the characters and their problems

Down

1. Takes place with the character's mind

2. In general, a contrast between expectation and reality

4. The narrator only focuses on the thoughts and feelings of only one character

6. A fictional prose narrative that is usually ten to twenty book pages long

9. A way of speaking that is characteristic of a particular region or group of people

10. The story of a person's life written or told by that person

12. The story of a real person's life written or told by another person

13. A short piece of nonfiction prose that examines a single subject

16. The attitude that a writer takes toward the audience, a subject or a character

17. A fiction story that is usually more than 100 book pages long