

Literary Terms

Across

2. The main character in a story
 3. Giving human characteristics to non-living things
 6. Comparison using like or as
 9. the events that make up a story
 12. Series of events that create and build suspense
 13. The type of art, literature, or music expressed by the author
 17. Character that goes against the main character
 18. The message or lesson learned; must be universal

19. The author's attitude towards a subject
 20. The atmosphere of a piece of work, creates feelings in the reader
 21. How the author feels about the topic; his opinion

Down

1. The problem in the story
 4. The most intense part of the story; the turning point
 5. Time and place of the story
 7. The setting, introduction of characters
 8. Repetition of beginning consonant sounds

10. How the conflict is resolved; the end of the story
 11. The writer describes something that appeals to our senses
 14. Hints or clues that something is to come
 15. Comparison that does not use like or as
 16. Something in the story represents something else

Word Bank

- |               |           |                 |            |             |               |
|---------------|-----------|-----------------|------------|-------------|---------------|
| Antagonist    | Metaphor  | Personification | Imagery    | Mood        | Tone          |
| Foreshadowing | Theme     | Setting         | Resolution | Protagonist | Rising Action |
| Conflict      | Symbolism | Point of view   | Simile     | Exposition  | Alliteration  |
| Genre         | Climax    | Plot            |            |             |               |