

Literary Terms

Across

3. Words that imitate sounds
 9. A story's main message or moral
 10. The opponent or enemy
 11. The point at which the conflict is at its greatest intensity and is then resolved
 13. Two unlike things are compared
 18. Time and place of the story
 20. Character who doesn't have a large role
 22. Author's attitude toward the subject matter
 23. Something happens that is the reverse of what you expected
 24. Used to let the audience know what a character is thinking
 25. A struggle between opposing forces
 26. The practice of using symbols

27. A character who undergoes an internal change over the course of the story
 28. Language that portrays sensory experiences
 29. The perspective of the story
 30. Provide background information about events
 31. A main or important character

Down

1. A conversation between characters
 2. Clues or hints about something that is going to happen
 4. Through which an author reveals a character's personality
 5. Character who undergoes no change
 6. When two or more words make the same sound

7. Sequence of events in a story
 8. The literal meaning of a word
 12. Extreme exaggeration
 14. An expression that cannot be understood from the meanings of its individual words
 15. The main character
 16. Describing objects as though they possess human qualities
 17. States that one thing is something else
 19. The feeling the reader gets from the literature
 21. Something that represents something else