

Literary Terms Final

Across

3. A person who has just started learning to do something
 4. Marked by abundant inventiveness or productivity
 7. A roundabout or indirect way of speaking
 10. An established preference for something
 13. Feeling or showing sorrow and remorse or a sin
 14. Having or showing a generous and kind nature
 18. A person who is known for his/her wisdom
 23. To scold or condemn vehemently and at length
 24. Full of excessive talk
 25. Lacking in energy, vitality and vigor
 27. Immature and therefore lacking maturity or sophistication
 28. To attack the reputation of; to criticize in derogatory manner
 30. To describe or draw something carefully so that people can understand it
 33. A person who attacks settled beliefs or institution
 34. Showy; pretentious; too fancy
 35. Taking or showing extreme care about minute details

36. Lacking stability and is dependent on circumstances beyond one's control

37. Characterized by fearlessness, fortitude, and endurance and therefore lacking fear

Down

1. A scolding or long or intense verbal attack; a speech addressed to a public assembly
 2. To purge or cleanse of moral offensiveness
 5. Averse to activity, effort, or movement
 6. Modest or shy because of lack of self-confidence
 8. Not open to question or dispute; in disputable
 9. Likely to cause disagreement or argument
 11. Of, relating to, or expressing praise
 12. Acting in a rash harshly manner without fully considering the consequences
 15. Exaggerated or affectedly mournful or gloomy
 16. A judgement involving condemnation
 17. A loyal and dedicated follower
 19. A person who tries to win favor by flatter
 20. Extraordinary in some bad way

21. A person who knows a lot about a particular subject and expresses opinions about that topic publicly
 22. A person who travels from place to place
 26. Sharply painful or saddening to the feelings; piercing; cutting in effect
 29. Not meant to be taken seriously not literally
 31. Using or involving the use of a minimum of words
 32. Hard to find or capture; hard to understand, define or remember

Word Bank

Facetious	Languid	Neophyte	Stalwart	Indolent	Laconic	Expurgate
Elusive	Incontrovertible	Contentious	Ostentatious	Delineate	Poignant	Loquacious
Intrepid	Meticulous	Contrite	Prolific	Iconoclast	Itinerant	Laudatory
Lugubrious	Berate	Predilection	Circumlocution	Censure	Magnanimous	Sage
Denigrate	Pundit	Harangue	Diffident	Callow	Egregious	Impetuous
Precarious	Sycophant					