

Literary Terms (Types of Writing)

Across

7. literature where the characters and events actually happened

8. categories of literature

9. a fictional story that includes a moral, and usually non-humans, or animals

10. not a long piece of fictional writing, focuses on one event, character, or incident

12. a type of fiction that includes actors

Down

1. literature that includes imaginary characters and events

2. a genre where characters/events are set in the future

3. literature written by someone about his/her life

4. a longer work of fiction

5. literature written about a person

6. a type of writing that includes rhyming words or figurative language

11. a type of narrative that involves human suffering, including death