

Literary Terms

Across

6. A long, complicated word which means a long, complicated way of expressing something, to beat around the bush.
7. Behavior adapted because of people, things, incidents or happenings.
9. Person, place, or thing that represents something beyond itself, most often something concrete or tangible that represents an abstract idea.
10. To review by a brief summary, as at the end of a speech or discussion; summarize

Down

1. A purposeful exaggeration for emphasis or humor.

2. When a writer presents a situation or thing as if it is less important or serious than it is in reality.
3. The use of informal expressions appropriate to everyday speech rather than to the formality of writing, and differing in pronunciation, vocabulary, or grammar.
4. When something is open to more than one interpretation.
5. Polite, indirect expressions that replace words and phrases considered harsh and impolite.
8. The attitude of a writer toward a subject or an audience.

Word Bank

Euphemism

Circumlocution

Hyperbole

Attitude

Colloquialism

Tone

Understatement

Recapitulate

Ambiguity

Symbolism