

Literary Terms

Across

- 3. word choice
- 4. a contradiction between what a character thinks and what the reader knows to be true
- 8. writing or speech that is not meant to be interpreted literally
- 12. a figure of speech comparing one thing as if it were something else
- 13. a lesson taught by a literary work
- 16. a struggle between opposing forces
- 17. the act of creating and developing a character
- 18. the arrangement of words and phrases to create well-formed sentences in a language.
- 20. the use of clues that suggest events that have yet to occur
- 22. the dictionary definition of a word

23. descriptive or figurative language used in literature to create pictures for the reader

25. the associated meaning of a word
 26. a central message or insight into life revealed through the literary work

Down

- 1. anything that stands for or represents something else; has a dual meaning
- 2. comparing two things using the words 'like' or 'as'
- 5. an event occurs that contradicts the expectations of the reader
- 6. the writer's attitude toward his or her audience/subject
- 7. a conversation between characters
- 9. words are used to suggest the opposite of what is meant sarcasm
- 10. the main character in a literary work

11. the highest point of interest or suspense in a literary work

14. the sequence of events in a literary work

15. the time and place of the action in a literary work

19. a reference to a well-known person, place, event, literary work , or work of art

21. the character or force in conflict with the protagonist

24. how the reader feels when analyzing a piece of literature