

Literary Terms

Across

- 4. Two consecutive lines in poetry
- 8. Stories, plays, novels, interpreted on multiple levels
- 9. The Pardoner's Tale is an example
- 10. Problem or struggle in a story
- 11. Type of literature meant to be performed on stage
- 12. Conversation
- 13. A sudden realization or awareness
- 15. Beowulf is an example of this kind of long poem
- 16. Lord Randall is an example from the Medieval Period

- 17. A sad brooding poem that mourns loss or death
- 18. The emotional/psychological meanings of words
- 19. The rise and fall sound of accented /unaccented syllables
- 22. The technique of developing the personalities of characters
- 24. The repetition of vowel sounds within a line of poetry
- 25. Seemingly contradictory expression or situation

Down

- 1. Reference to some other work of literature
- 2. Earliest poetry of the British Isles

- 3. Story themes and patterns recurring around the world
- 5. The repetition of initial consonant sounds
- 6. Comparison between two unlike things without using like or as
- 7. Exact dictionary meaning of a word
- 14. Unrhymed iambic pentameter
- 20. General term given to poetry that is not drama or poetry
- 21. Can be verbal, situational or dramatic
- 23. Midline pause in Anglo-Saxon literature