

Literary Vocabulary

Across

- 4. A list of words that you referenced in the body of your paper
- 6. A warning or indication of a future event
- 8. A pattern, symbol, image, or idea that recurs in literature
- 9. Its information can be trusted and is of good quality

11. A literary character who makes a judgement error that inevitably leads to their own destruction

12. A short saying about a general truth

Down

1. When the reader or audience knows more about the circumstances or future events in a story than the characters

2. The imaginative language not meant to be taken literally

3. A source that is truthful

5. An opposing view point

7. A fatal flaw

10. A literary device that exploits a reader's expectations