

Literary devices

Across

4. is the sensory of details or figurative language used to describe, arouse emotion, or represent abstractions
 6. is a statement of a known authorship which expresses the general truth or a moral of principle
 10. the person telling the story
 12. contradictory terms to suggest a paradox
 14. something said in a humorous way
 22. an emotional aura in setting or tone
 23. the central idea
 24. the repetition in sound
 26. grammatical units that contain both a subject and verb
 27. is the contrast between what is stated explicitly and what was really meant
 28. minimalizing the fact of something
 31. fanciful expressions
 33. how the author joins words or phrases

34. the duplication of words or sounds

35. something directly addressed towards a imaginary person
 36. is a direct reference to something in which is presumably unknown
 37. is a figure of speech in which they use deliberate exaggeration or overstatement
 38. agreeable or less offensive
 39. presents the main clause
 40. used to produce figurative language

Down

1. has multiple meaning as either intentional or unintentional
 2. major divisions of genre
 3. is a work of closely imitates the style or content of another
 5. words that have a primary aim of teaching
 7. describes the genre
 8. does not intend to carry the literal meaning

9. included in serious talk

11. something developed at great lengths
 13. something that represents itself
 15. the strict literal dictionary definition of a word
 16. is a statement that appears to be self-contradictory
 17. a word or phrase referred to as a pronoun
 18. a statement to group together the authors opinion or purpose
 19. the view point the story is told
 20. the opposite of a contrast of ideas
 21. is a figure of speech using implied comparison of the seemingly unlikelihood of things
 25. a verbal description
 29. something used to represent a whole
 30. describes the authors attitude
 32. an emotional nod created by the entirety of a literary work