

Lithosphere crossword

Across

2. large pieces of rock that breaks off of it's " parent rock"

4. igneous rocks that form beneath earth's surface

6. smaller earthquakes that happen after a large even

8. deepest point on earth and ocean

13. transportation of materials by wind water or ice

15. happens in subduction zone

18. lithosphere is divided which move and change constantly

20. all land

21. crystals are pressed flat to give rock layers

23. happens by two plate boundaries

24. water solutions that have other minerals and re-crystallize

25. fine grained sediments reduced in size

Down

1. small earthquakes that happen before a large event

3. happens when two plates move apart

5. transportation of rock into one or more compounds

7. hot materials that flow from a volcano

9. rocks that are pressed or cemented together

10. intense amount of pressure and change in temperature

11. process where rocks are either chemically or physically changed

12. rocks are changed by adding heat or extreme pressure

14. plates grind past each other

16. transition with three main rock types

17. opening of the volcano

19. rocks that are formed by crystallization

22. Appears from living matter