

Name: _____

Date: _____

Lord of the Flies

Across

- 4. Severed sow's head that Jack impales on a stake in the forest glade as an offering to the beast.
- 7. He embodies spiritual human goodness that is deeply connected with nature.
- 8. Something that frightens all the boys and stands for the primal instinct of savagery that exists within all human beings.
- 12. This is what Jack calls the twins.
- 13. The smaller boys on the island, who represent innocence and cluelessness.
- 15. The boys mistake the parachutist for a _____.

- 16. The first boy Ralph encounters on the island after the crash, he is overweight, intellectual, and talkative. Represents the scientific and rational side of humanity.

Down

- 1. Represents order, rational thought and civilization.
- 2. It is on top of the mountain, and later, on the beach, it is used to attract the notice of passing ships that might be able to rescue the boys.
- 3. It represents power of science and intellectual endeavor in society.
- 5. The bigger boys on the island, that represent rule and authority.
- 6. He is introduced as a quiet and intense older boy, he eventually becomes a sadistic and brutal terrorist.

- 9. Represents war-like conditions, and a miniature version of a corrupt society.
- 10. The strong-willed, egomaniacal boy on this island. He represents the instinct of savagery, violence, and the desire for power.
- 11. A rip in the forest caused by the crash landing of the boys' plane on the island. It symbolizes that man, and his savage nature, destroys paradise just by entering it.
- 14. Is described as athletic and charismatic. He is the primary representative of order, civilization, and productive leadership.