

Name: _____

Date: _____

Lower Leg

Across

1. How many bones are in the foot?
5. This is where you will see the majority of swelling for an injury to the lateral ankle.
9. This connects bone to bone.
11. This special test is used for diagnosing high ankle sprains.
12. How many phalanges are in the foot?
15. What is the name of the triangular shaped medial ankle ligament?
17. This word means farthest from the trunk.

18. This word root means pertaining to the nose.

Down

2. A good ____ is the best method for determining the nature and extent of injury and is also a very important part of the evaluation process.
3. This word is the medical term for the great toe or pertaining to the great toe.
4. This is a flexible membrane that connects the tibia and fibula.
6. What test is used to diagnose an anterior talofibular sprain?

7. The bump test, or heel strike test, is used to diagnosis what?

8. What is another name for the ankle joint?

10. This is another name for the heel bone.

13. This connects muscle to bone.

14. What tarsal bone is one of the three bones that comprise the ankle?

16. There are _____ lateral ankle ligaments.