

MARINE BIOLOGY WORD PUZZLE

Across

- 2. Sargassum are important because they serve as a (blank) ground for many small marine animals
- 6. Cypris Larvae are an example of
- 8. Chlorella is an example of (blank)
- 10. Red algae, is formally referred to as (blank)

11. A (blank) is an example of a holoplankton

12. Plankton do what to their bodies in order to remain in shallower water.

Down

- 1. A (blank) takes around six months or more in order to become an adult
- 3. A (blank) attaches to shells in the third stage of its life cycle

- 4. Its name was derived from a Greek word, which can be translated to "Water drifter"
- 5. They are unicellular eukaryotes and are widely found in fresh water.
- 7. Brown algae is also called (blank)
- 9. They are the most common kind of phytoplankton, Diatoms they grow attached to benthic substrates.