

MIDTERM PUZZLE

Across

1. Promise or set of promise.
 9. contract can be set aside at any time during minority, or for a reasonable.
 10. the reasonable apprehension or fear of immediate contact.

Down

2. authority of a court to hear and decide a specific case.
 3. injured party.

4. A process in which parties attempt to settle their dispute informally, with or without attorneys to represent them.
 5. tortfeasor.
 6. Statements made by the plaintiff and the defendant in a lawsuit that detail the facts, charges, and defenses involved in the litigation. The complaint and answer are part of the pleadings.
 7. completion (contact) of the assault.
 8. Distinctive motto, mark or emblem

Word Bank

Battery	Disaffirmance	Trademark	Contract
Jurisdiction	Defendant	Plaintiff	Assault
Pleadings	Negotiation		