

Name: _____

Date: _____

MTZ Breast Cancer Awareness

Across

2. The most commonly diagnosed cancer in women.

6. This demographic accounts for less than one percent of all breast cancer cases.

8. Breast cancer is a disease in which _____ (cancer) cells form in the tissues of the breast.

10. This type of factor may increase the chance of getting a disease.

Down

1. Type of cancer that travels to other parts of the body.

3. The reduction in prescriptive hormone replacement therapy after _____ coincides with the gradual reduction in female breast cancer incidence rates among women aged 50 and older.

4. Over 3.3 million breast cancer _____ are alive in the United States today.

5. Non-cancerous tumors.

7. Procedure to determine the severity or aggressiveness of a tumor.

9. A mass of abnormal tissue.