

MT Respiratory System

Across

2. During increased physical activity or in diseased states, what help the rib cage move to accommodate total air capacity?
 7. A slow respiration rate is called...
 9. What does the prefix eu- mean?
 10. What does the suffix -pnea mean?
 15. The use of a machine that delivers mild air pressure to keep the airways open
 16. What does the suffix -meter mean?
 19. What does the combining form resuscit/o mean?
 20. What does the combining form alveol/o mean?
 21. What is the process of gas exchange called?

Word Bank

hyperventilation
 air sac
 bradypnea
 pharynx
 respiration

alveoli
 upper respiratory tract
 pus
 accessory muscles
 in

diaphragm
 external respiration
 pleural fluid
 measure
 surgical puncture

to revive
 CPAP
 trachea
 good normal
 decongestant

breathing
 respiratory rate
 atelectasis
 mediastinum
 bronchitis

22. The base of the lungs is...

24. What is the exchange of oxygen and carbon dioxide called?

25. Name the type of drug that reduces congestion.

Down

1. Collapsed or airless lung caused by any condition that prevents the alveoli from expanding normally to allow breathing and coughing.
 3. What is responsible for the inhalation and humidification?
 4. Where does gas exchange occur?
 5. Condition in which breathing is faster and deeper than normal.
 6. What does the suffix -centesis mean?
 8. What does the prefix -em mean?

11. What is the number of breaths that a person takes in a minute called?

12. What is inflammation of the bronchial tubes called?

13. What are the lungs divided by?

14. The pleural cavity contains...

17. What has C shaped rings of cartilage around it?

18. What does the combining form py/o mean?

23. What is the passageway through which air, food, and liquids travels?