

Name: _____

MUSCLES

Across

5. Name the muscles that tends to be larger in people who run, or cycle.

7. The muscle that is contracting is also called?

9. Muscles can only pull and cannot?

11. The muscle that is contracting is also called?

12. Any muscle that decreases the angle between members of a limb?

13. Attached to bones by tendons and help them to move.

14. Any muscle that increases the angle between members of a limb?

15. Name the muscles that would be found below the pectoral muscles?

Down

1. Name the muscle used for sitting. GLUTEUS

2. Rigid organs that form the skeleton.

3. What name is given to a pair of muscles working together in opposite directions, to produce a movement?

4. State the names of the muscles in the upper arm (alphabetically).

6. Long, fibrous straps that fasten bones together.

8. Bands of fibrous tissue that connect muscles to bones.

10. This muscle is found in the shoulder.