

Macbeth

Across

2. behavior involving physical force intended to hurt and damage something or someone
 6. the quality of being fair and reasonable
 8. aggressive or warlike behaviour
 11. the process of releasing strong or repressed emotions
 12. implying that something bad is going to happen
 13. principles concerning the distinction between right and wrong or good and bad behaviour

14. a widely held but fixed and oversimplified image of a particular type of person or thing
 15. the undermining of the power and authority of an established system or institution

Down

1. a particular system of faith and worship
 3. a force that goes beyond scientific understanding or the laws of nature
 4. excessive, irrational belief in supernatural influences
 5. the action of saving or being saved from sin, error, or evil

7. an act of speaking one's thoughts aloud when by oneself or regardless of any hearers, especially by a character in a play

9. a fatal flaw leading to the downfall of a tragic hero or heroine
 10. the point in a play, novel, etc., in which a principal character recognizes or discovers another character's true identity or the true nature of their own circumstances