

Magic in the classroom

Across

1. difficult to deal with or achieve, but interesting and enjoyable

3. to find out something that you did not know before

6. the final result of a process, meeting, activity etc

7. a way of entertaining people by doing something that looks like magic

12. to take action to do something, especially to solve a problem

13. to trust someone or something to do something for you

14. to disappear in a sudden and mysterious way

17. to complete an action or activity, especially a complicated one

19. used before a statement that is connected to what you have just said and adds something to it

20. making a liquid or substance flow out of a container that you are holding

Down

2. paper folding

4. about a particular subject

5. the feeling that you can do things well and that people respect you

8. the past tense and past participle of teach

9. the act of tricking someone by telling them something that is not true

10. the scientific study of the structure of substances and the way they react with other substances

11. very surprised about something that you did not expect

15. an opinion that someone gives you about the best thing to do in a particular situation

16. to concentrate on something and pay particular attention to it

18. to reduce something to a lower amount or value