

Name: _____

Date: _____

Male Reproductive System

Across

1. cutting the vas deferent to prevent sperm passage to urethra
3. Causes the appearance and behavior of the animal to have masculine traits
4. To remove testicles surgically or by banding
7. Provides a passageway for sperm out of the seminiferous tubules, storage of sperm, place for sperm to mature
9. External Sac that holds testicles outside of the body to keep sperm cooler than the body temperature

10. Male organ of copulation which conveys semen and urine out of the body
12. a mature male reproductive cell
14. Primary male organs of reproduction
15. Majority of the seminal fluid excreted through these hands and it is the sperms source of energy
16. accessory sex gland that acts as a storage chamber for the semen and help to keep sperm viable
17. The gland that is lined with a moist, folded mucous membrane to permit the tissue to expand while storing fluids

Down

2. Glandular part of testicles containing the sperm producing cells
5. Slender tube from epididymis to urethra which moves sperm to the urethra at ejaculation
6. Consists of vas deferent, muscle, blood vessels and nerves
8. Gland that acts as a flushing agent that washes out the urethra before the semen is expelled
11. when both testicles remain inside the body a
13. one testicle remains inside the body