

Mammalia Orders

Across

- 1. Long muscular trunk, thick loose skin, upper incisors elongated as tusks
3. Chisel-like incisors, hind legs longer than forelegs and adapted for running and jumping, herbivorous
4. Hooves with an odd number of toes on each foot, herbivorous
8. Sharp, pointed canine teeth and molars for chewing, carnivorous
10. Opposable thumbs, forward-facing eyes, well-developed cerebral cortex, omnivorous

- 11. Aquatic, finlike forelimbs and no hind limbs, herbivorous
12. Diet consists mainly of insects and other small invertebrates
13. Teeth consisting of many thin tubes cemented together, eats ants and termites
14. Aquatic, streamlined body, paddle-like forelimbs and no hind limbs, thick layer of insulating blubber, carnivorous
15. Lay eggs, no nipples, young suck milk from fur of mother

Down

- 2. Hooves with an even number of toes on each foot, herbivorous
5. Chisel-like, continuously growing incisors worn down by gnawing, herbivorous
6. Embryo completes development in pouch on mother
7. Short legs, stumpy tail, herbivorous, complex, multi-chambered stomach
9. Reduced teeth or no teeth, herbivorous(sloths) or carnivorous(anteaters and armadillos)